

Aug 31 → Sep 1, 1864

1912 Dates J-BK

JONESBORO

After destroying the roads southwest of Atlanta, Ga. The Federals under Howard pushed toward Jonesboro, a town south of Atlanta. Upon their arrival they found a Confederate force commanded by HARDEE in possession. The Confederates made an attack on Aug. 31. And after a sharp skirmish were defeated and forced to retreat to LOVEJOY. This Confederates defeat led Hood to abandon Atlanta on Sept 1, 1864, and General SLOCUM at once took possession of the city.

Sept 1, 1864

Confederates evacuate Atlanta.

Sept. 2, 1864

Sherman occupies Atlanta.

Sept 3, 1864

news was received that Sherman had captured Atlanta.

Sept. 4, 1864

Sherman orders civilians out of Atlanta.

Sept 15, 1864

Grant paid a visit to Sheridan who had the command in the Shenandoah Valley, and gave him the order, "Go on."
Within a week Sheridan gained 2 brilliant victories over Early, long wished for but unexpected victories in the Shenandoah valley.

Sept 19, 1864

1912 Dates J-BK

WINCHESTER

While the Confederates under Early were encamped on the West Bank of OPE QUAN creek near Winchester they were attacked by Sheridan. At the end of a 5 hours' engagement the Confederates retreated toward Winchester with a loss of 3,611 men. The Federals lost 5,018.

Sep 19, 1864

1912 Dates J-BK

Battle: Winchester, Va.

Union Shendan

w 40,000
lost 3,500

defeated

Early

w 15,000
lost 3,611

Sept. 19, 1864

Battle of Winchester, Virginia

Sept 1864

William Tecumseh Sherman was in camp at Atlanta during Sept 1864
He was in his prime at 44

He proposed to leave ~~Hood~~ Thomas & cope with Hood while he marched across Georgia. Pres Lincoln said No.

meanwhile Hood crossed the Tennessee R. Grant doubted

the wisdom of Sherman's plan and he asked Sherman whether he had not better destroy Hood's Army before starting southward. Sherman anticipating those objections sent a despatch to Grant and receiving from him the word, "Do as you propose."

Sep 1-2, 1864

Battle of Atlanta

Union forces under Gen. William T. Sherman (Feb 8, 1820 - Feb 14, 1891) captured city of Atlanta, Ga. which was evacuated by Confederate under Gen. John B. Hood (June 1, 1831 - Aug 30, 1879)

Sept 22, 1864

1912 Dates J-BK

FISHER'S HILL

From OPEQUAN, the Confederates led by Early retreated to Fisher's Hill, south of Winchester, Va. There on Sept 22, 1864, they were attacked by Sheridan and after an overwhelming defeat, they retreated in confusion pursued by the Federals. About 1100 prisoners and 16 guns were taken by Sheridan, while the Confederates lost many more in killed and wounded.